

2007

Pound Ridge

Democratic Candidates

Experience. Dedication.

Diversity. Commitment.

FOR A BETTER POUND RIDGE.

POUND RIDGE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

Post Office Box 350
Pound Ridge, NY 10576

PoundRidgeDems@gmail.com

Elyse Arnow-Brill

for Town Council

Elyse is a 21 year resident of Pound Ridge, where, with her husband, she has raised her three children. She worked as an attorney for 12 years both in New York and Boston specializing in corporate re-organization and bankruptcy law. She earned a masters degree in strategic planning and has been an adjunct professor and guest lecturer at Pace University Graduate School of Business. She is a published writer and currently is a consultant in the area of strategic planning and global strategic marketing. Highlights of Ms. Arnow's volunteer activities include being a long-time board member of Westchester County's Planned Parenthood and its political action committee, an off-board member of the Town's Conservation Board and a member of the Town's Master Plan Committee. Ms. Arnow was a 10-year member of the Pound Ridge Fire Department and currently serves as the President of the Pound Ridge Land Conservancy.

Jane Darold

for Receiver of Taxes

As a resident of Pound Ridge for more than 20 plus years, Jane will bring the necessary experience and skills to the position of Receiver of Taxes. Ms. Darold is an attorney, has an extensive banking background having worked as an auditor, in-house legal-counsel and compliance manager in various financial institutions. She has also served as treasurer of the Pound Ridge Newcomers Club, the Pound Ridge Theatre Company, as well as the 2006 Aydelott for Congress Campaign Committee. Ms Darold continues to serve the community as a volunteer fire-fighter, truck foreman and financial secretary of the Pound Ridge Fire Department.

Regina Kelly

Re-elect to Town Justice

A 27 year resident of Pound Ridge, Regina has served for 16 years as a Town Justice of Pound Ridge and seeks re-election to continue her public service with the approval of the voters in the upcoming election. The Hon. Ms. Kelly is proud of her work during her tenure at the Pound Ridge Justice Court, where she has served with distinction, responsible for significant administrative changes in the Town Court. A practicing lawyer and former Village prosecutor, she seeks re-election to continue an efficient and fair Justice Court for the residents of Pound Ridge.

David Parmet

for Town Council

A resident of Pound Ridge for more than seven years, David is a small business owner and entrepreneur, running a successful home based marketing and public relations firm. He and his wife are the proud parents of three young children, and they have been actively involved in their children's education at the Pound Ridge Elementary School and Community Church Nursery School. Mr. Parmet is no stranger to effective government, working as an aide to New York City Council Speaker Peter Vallone, and to Majority Leader Jim Talon in the New York State Assembly before embarking on his fifteen-year career in public relations. Mr. Parmet worked actively in the leadership of the groundbreaking citizen group Take 19, and in the successful campaign that elected John Hall to Congress in the Democratic take back of the United States House of Representatives in 2006. He wants to make Pound Ridge the best place to raise a family.